

blossom

Fold card forward along inner most dotted lines and backward along outermost dotted lines.

Write a little note on the blank space in the center or glue a small photo of the child.

When you've done this, the front of the card should look like a flower pot with a sprout and the word Mom

Open the card to reveal the secret message.

Moms make children blossom

