

Cut out each question and fold up the piece of paper. Answers are on pg 2.

This king built a tunnel?

This man was a governor of Judah?

Archeologists found an inscription with this king's name on it?

Archaeologists found clay jars filled with grain in this city?

What fell in Jericho that Archaeologists found bricks of?

The inscription of “Pontius Pilate, Prefect of Judea” was found on what?

This king’s tunnel was used to bring what into the city?

Someone who digs and finds things in the ground that are really old?

What is the most historically accurate book in the world?

This inscription said “the King of Israel from the house of _____”.

Answers

This king built a tunnel - Hezekiah

This man was a governor of Judah - Pilate

Archeologists found an inscription with this kings name on it - King David

Archaeologists found clay jars filled with grain in this city - Jericho

What fell in Jericho that Archaeologists found bricks of? City walls or walls is a fine answer

The inscription of “Pontius Pilate, Prefect of Judea” was found on what? Stone tablet

This king’s tunnel was used to bring what into the city? Water

Someone who digs and finds things in the ground that are really old? Archeologists

What is the most historically accurate book in the world? Bible

This inscription said “the King of Israel from the house of _____”. David