

When the ark was finished, two of every kind of animal came to Noah and entered the ark.

4

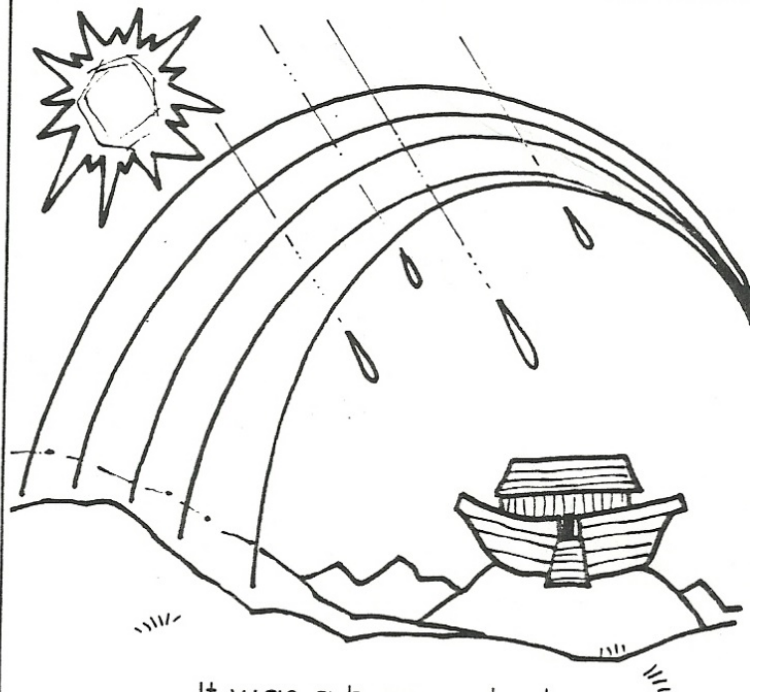

Then Noah and his family climbed into the ark. The rain began and continued for 40 days and nights.

5

After the waters had dried up, Noah, his family, and all the animals came out of the ark.

6

It was a happy day! God told Noah the rainbow would be a sign that he would never again destroy the earth with a flood.

7