

Any Time Any Place: Try spending different times in various places while you seek God in prayer. Cut out the circles. Use a paper clip and pencil to spin for a different time and then different place each day. At the end of the week answer the questions below.

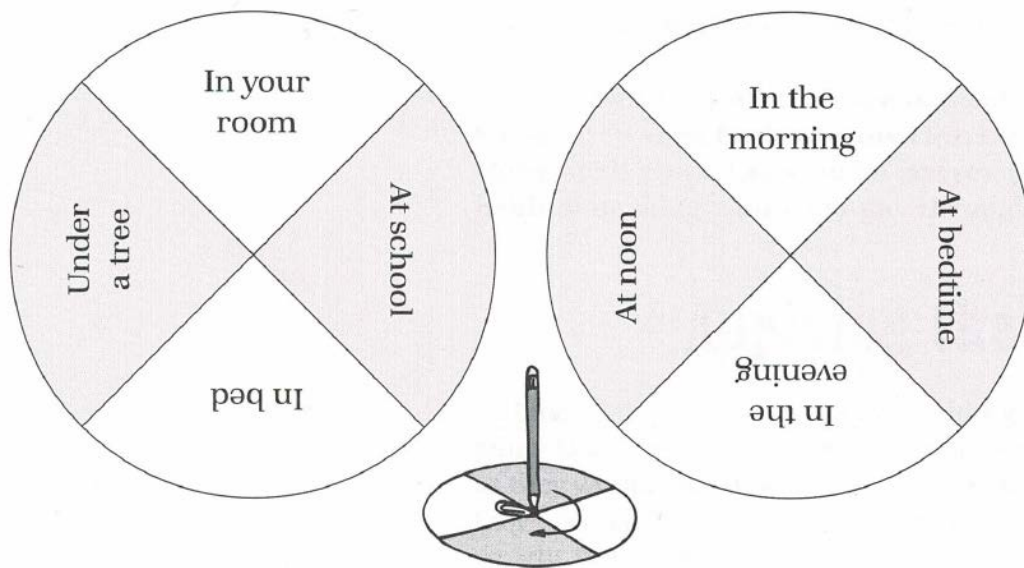

Where was your favorite place to pray and why?

What was your favorite time of day to pray and why?

Why is it good that seeking God in prayer can be done any time and any place?

---

Any Time Any Place: Try spending different times in various places while you seek God in prayer. Cut out the circles. Use a paper clip and pencil to spin for a different time and then different place each day. At the end of the week answer the questions below.

Where was your favorite place to pray and why?

What was your favorite time of day to pray and why?

Why is it good that seeking God in prayer can be done any time and any place?