

God does not talk to me in person. God talks to me in the Bible.

He wants me to listen and believe and obey!

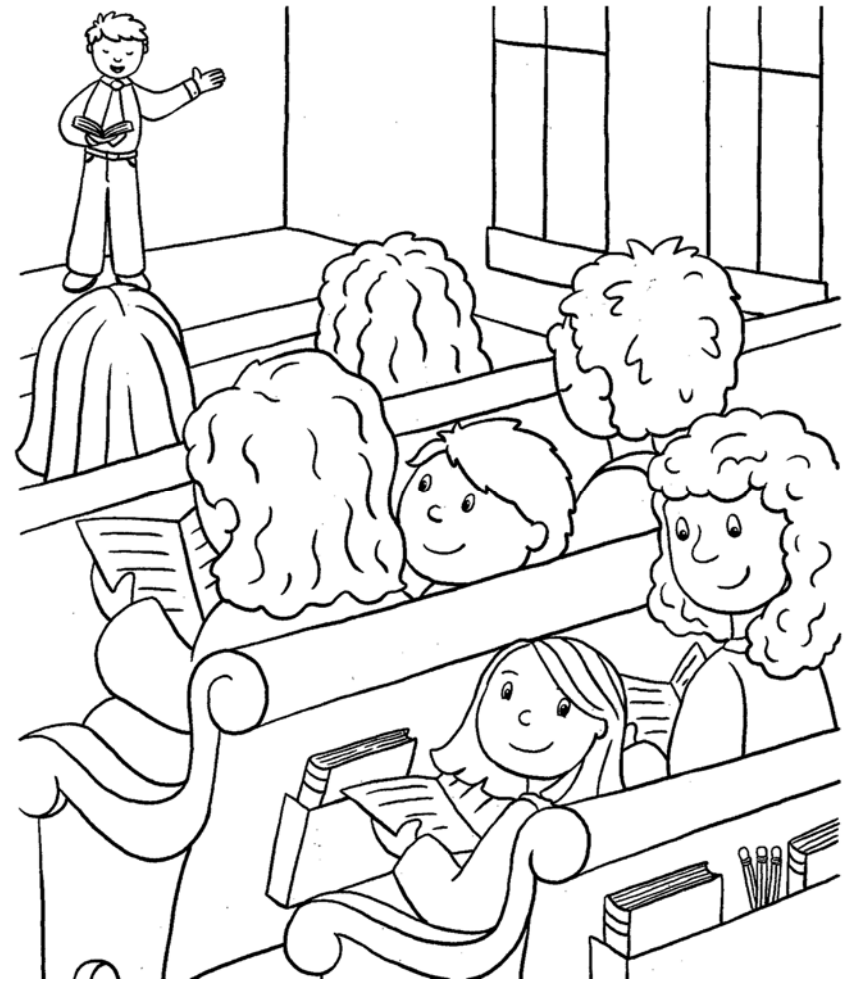

God tells me to pray. That is just like talking to God. I will do exactly as God tells me. I can pray before I eat; I can pray when I go to bed; I can pray when I am happy or sad. I will pray because God tells me to in the Bible.

God tells me to go to church services.
I do not go on Saturday; I do not go on Monday. I go to worship God on Sunday because that is what God tells me to do in the Bible.

God tells me to sing. He tells me to sing
on Sundays when I am at church services. I will obey what God says in the Bible. I will not play, I will not cry
but I will make God happy and sing
when everyone else sings.

I will give because God tells me to give.
God says when we go to church services
on Sunday we should give – that makes God happy! I will not play, I will not talk, but I will give when it is time to give.

God tells me to listen when I am at church services. I love God and want to obey, so I will listen. I will not play, I will not talk – but I will listen when the Bible is read.

That makes God and me happy!
