

On the First Day God made the world.
The world had no shape and there was darkness everywhere.

God made the light.
God saw that this was good and called the light Day and the dark Night.