

On the Third Day God made the waters under the sky come together and the land appear. He called the land earth and the waters seas. He made the grass and the plants and the fruit trees.
God saw that this was good.