

Joshua, the new leader of the Israelites, sent two men to spy on Jericho, the first city to be captured.