

LOVE EVERYONE

Make a border around the words above by writing the names of people you can love.

To love everyone means:

- To show others you care
- To be kind to people who are different from you
- To get along well with others
- To be friendly
- To want good and not bad for other people
- To put their needs ahead of your own
- To care about people
- To not hate anyone
- To not mistreat anyone
- To forgive others when they hurt or upset you

Word Search – Find the missing words in Matthew 22:37-39, then circle them in the word search below. When you are done, see if you can quietly repeat these three verses from memory.

“Jesus _____, ‘Love the _____ your _____ with all your _____ and with all your _____ and with all your _____.’ This is the _____
 and _____ commandment.
 And the _____ is like it: ‘Love your _____ as _____.’”

LOVE GOD

LOVE OTHERS

In the first heart, list two ways you can give love to God this week. In the second heart, list two ways to love others this week. Be prepared to tell how it felt to give away your love and what changes happened in your life as a result.
