

Follow the Dots to answer the question below.

God told Abraham he would have as many children as something that appears in the sky. What was it?

