

As you read the Bible, stop reading at each appropriate picture and ask the students which picture is being talked about in the Bible.

Then continue reading until the next picture – keep going until all the pictures have been numbered.

Number the pictures the way they happened in today's Bible story. Then place a small adhesive bandage on the hurt man in picture four. Talk about each picture.

