

What Would You Do?

Read each situation below. In the box, write or draw what you would do to honor God.

1. You and your best friend go to the grocery store with your mom. While your mom is standing in line to pay, she realizes she forgot something. She tells you and your friend to stay in line while she goes to get it. Your friend points to the candy rack then secretly slips a chocolate bar into your pocket. You don't want to make your best friend mad, but you know that God says it is wrong to steal. What would you do to honor God?

2. You are watching a TV show. The story is funny, and you like the characters. But, one of the characters keeps using God's name in a bad way. What would you do to honor God?

3. Your soccer team is tied for first place. The big play-off game that will decide the championship is scheduled for Sunday morning at the same time as worship services. The coach lectures everyone on being committed to the team and how important it is to be there for the game. What would you do to honor God?

4. You have studied and learned how to honor God, what will you do this week to put what you learned into practice?
